

EXCERPT FROM A FAMOUS CLASSIC

Your next piece is the Largo from The New World Symphony by Dvořák.

Watch out for crotchets, minims and semibreves in this piece.

The first part is played by your left hand; the second part is played by your right hand; the final part is played by your left hand.

LARGO

(FROM THE NEW WORLD SYMPHONY)

By: Antonin Dvořák

NOTES REQUIRED

FINGERING

Musical score for the Largo excerpt, consisting of six staves. The first two staves are for the left hand (L.H.) in bass clef, and the next two are for the right hand (R.H.) in treble clef. The final two staves return to the left hand. The score includes notes, rests, and fingerings. Below each staff is a 'Count' line with numbers 1 through 4, indicating the measure numbers.